

Designed as an outdoor installation, this room features a pair of 2.5' x 1' sitting steps, and an angled laying platform. The steps are positioned for enjoying the morning light from the east, and the laying platform directs attention toward the western sunset. The design also features a glass canopy, ensuring space can be enjoyed in any weather.

