

I graduated from the University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign in 2023 with two degrees: a BLAS in Earth, Society, and Environmental Sustainability, and a BS in Sustainable Design.

In my career I hope to conceive meaningful productions that have a positive and sustainable impact. I believe that the integration of sustainable practices into the product design, architecture, and architectural fields is of the utmost importance. I hope to be part of the solution.