

Currently, I am part of the Architectural and Sustainability staff at HUSArchitecture in Chicago Illinois. My work involves assisting projects pursuing LEED certification, performing accessibility assessments for Chicago Housing Authority, and conducting verifications for ComEd's Affordable Housing / Energy Housing New Construction projects. I am proud to be working at a place where I can put my education to use, and support a cause that aligns with my personal mission.