

In order to determine the shape of my shelves I used USGS Sperry Glacier photographs from the years 1966, 1998, and 2015. I digitally traced the glacier borders, then CNC cut them into slabs of walnut. Aside from this reflection, the height between shelves is scaled to the gap in time; 1.5" is equal to one year.